You had to tell me that it's over
That made it hard for me to stay sober
Another bottle down a better taste replaces in my mouth
The bitter look over my shoulder without you
Without you

History History everything that's good is gone
Mystery Mystery I can't understand what went wrong
Every night when I sleep your not there right next to me
It doesn't matter anyway it's history

You tried to tell me it's my fault
And every problems unresolved
But I was with you through it all
And now it's back to you I'll crawl

History History everything that's good is gone
Mystery Mystery I can't understand what went wrong
Every night when I sleep your not there right next to me
It doesn't matter anyway it's history

All the things I should have told her
History means it's all over now
History History everything that's good is gone

History History everything that's good is gone
Mystery Mystery I can't understand what went wrong
Every night when I sleep your not there right next to me
It doesn't matter anyway yeah yeah
It doesn't matter anyway
