I'm silently speechless again,
I can't seem to get the words from my chest to my mouth,
Cause If I did, Cause if I did,
You might feel the way I've been feeling for you,
I concede I've been dreaming of you,
But making the connection's been the hardest thing to do,
Once it's made,
My lips are sealed, we can do what you want to

I may be playing with,
A loaded dice yeah,
I may be playing with a loaded dice,
But at least I'm in the game,

Come a little closer and spend some time with me,
My head is spinning at the sight of your beauty,
If you have a heart, Give it to me,
So make your way over and spend the night with me,
Keeping busy's not hard, you know what I mean,
Cause I'd rather be, Cause I'd rather be,
With you there than any place in the world,

You're genuinely, gently, glowing, now
From this point that's what everyone else can see,
But to them it's a cloudy day,
They take a look and a glance and they're on their way,
But they can't see,
No they can't see the real luster of your light,

I may be shooting for,
The brightest star yeah,
Cause if I don't then maybe one day that star will burn out,

Come a little closer and spend some time with me,
My head is spinning at the sight of your beauty,
If you have a heart, Give it to me,
So make your way over and spend the night with me,
Keeping busy's not hard, you know what I mean,
Cause I'd rather be, Cause I'd rather be,

With you there than any place in the world,
Any place in the world

Come a little closer and spend some time with me,
My head is spinning at the sight of your beauty,
If you have a heart, Give it to me, give it to me, give it to me

So come a little closer and spend some time with me,
My head is spinning at the sight of your beauty,
If you have a heart, give it to me

So make your way over and spend the night with me,
Keeping busy's not hard, you know what I mean,
Cause I'd rather be, yeah I'd rather be,
With you there than any place in the world
