I've been around to see where the angels lie forever
See where the angels lie forever ever ever ever
I've been around to give you a piece of mind
When the world is trying
I took you home without a way back
And now that you've played it forever is ever
I've been around to throwing the seeds again
Waiting to star the rain/reign

Take my love against the others, my Ireen
Don't you take my love
I stay awake when you're asleep, my Ireen
Don't you take my love

I spin around and see where the angels cry, see where the angels lie
I've been around and see where the angels cry, see where the angels cry forever
I couldn't walk without a defense
But now that I've changed that forever is ever
I couldn't talk
And my only hope
That the soul of liberation starts tomorrow

Take my love against the others my Ireen
Don't you take my love
I stay awake when you're asleep, my Ireen
Don't you take my love
?, Ireen (I have absolutely NO clue to any words in this sentence except the last one)
How can I win when no ones beside my Ireen Hey!

I stay awake when you're asleep, my Ireen
Don't you take my love
