The tears in my hands
a sea of mirrors in which I finally recognise you gentle icy cristal fairy I saw you dancing on the horizon I found myself in your eye and realised... but fell again with your tears a gleam of silver light I perceived her heart your eyes got blind from my love and on my knees IÅ´ve got your last blessing and deep inside of me the old longing awakes but her beauty makes me blind on her wings she took me away so heaven is a part of me the leaves are dancing a strange ritual who are you, that I am breathing for you?

1st refrain

see the bride - dancing to the stars see the bride - crushing on the floor see the bride - melting in the rain see the bride - cying in the rain

2nd refrain

see the bride - dancing in the stars see the bride - drowning in the sky see the bride - coming down like... see the bride - dieing in the rain
