Nobody's gonna change my mind
Try to tell me what's wrong or righth
Nobody's gonna feed me lies
Don't ask what I'm on tonight

Got some medication
Just to deal with the problems in your life
Got an education
It's my middle finger

And I blame it all on you
For the pain that you put me through

Somebody's gotta cross the line
Well did you forget that I'd take your side?
Somebody's gotta tell me why
I gotta fight someone else's fight

Got some medication
Just to deal with the problems in your life
Got an education
It's my middle finger

And I blame it all on you
For the pain that you put me through

This wasn't built to last
This wasn't built to last
This wasn't built to last

You can't escape it
You can't escape it
You can't escape it
You can't escape it
