Blessed, Angel, Crazy
I said I don't want to see your face again
Thought it's just a crippled feeling
Alcohol is calling demons

Just don't ask me to explain
Bitch, I put you in your place
All existence fades away
I'll be like you want

And to you I will find
And breathing
And this world is designed
Within

Well, tell me
Will you catch me when I fall down?
Tell me
Will you catch me when I fall?

Driven crazy, nothing matters
I don't wanna see this place again
No more looking back, I'm leaving
Breaking from my last rejection

Just don't ask me to explain
Bitch, I put you in your place
All existence fades away
I'll be like you want

And to you I will find
And breathing
And this world is designed
Within

Well, tell me
Will you catch me when I fall down?
Tell me
Will you catch me when I fall down?

Just don't ask me to explain
Bitch, I put you in your place

All existence fades away
Over my hated's release

And to you I will find
And breathing
And this world is designed
Within

Well, tell me
Will you catch me when I fall down?
Tell me
Will you catch me when I fall?
Well, tell me
Will you catch me when I fall down?
Tell me
Will you catch me when I fall?

In these days of red
