Awake, I'm waiting for the sun
I hope that I'm not dreaming now
'Cause you could take away the pain
I owe it all to you
You make it all seem so brand new
So would you please continue?

I want to be with you
Be with you 'til the end
I'll never leave you there
All alone and stranded
I don't want to be afraid
That I might never find someone
To treat me like you did

Wait, don't walk out that door
My heart is calling out your name
So won't you put your hand in mine
You leave me feeling blue
I need to spend more time with you
So would you please continue?

I want to be with you
Be with you 'til the end
I'll never leave you there
All alone and stranded
I don't want to be afraid
That I might never find someone
To treat me like you did
