Slit my wrists to keep my soul with me
I hold my head with my hand
Fear must be relieved

Push away, push away all the pain
Of the child we made
Give it life just to take it away
It's not our place

Can you feel him inside
Breathing when you breathe
Can you feel him inside
Kicking while you

Sleep softly, my child
Sleep softly, my child

It's the path of life that leads to death
Destroy what love created
It never took a step

Push away, push away all the pain
Of the child we made
Give it life just to take it away
It's not our place

Can you feel him inside
Breathing when you breathe
Can you feel him inside
Kicking while you

Sleep softly, my child
Sleep softly, my child

Push away, push away all the pain
Of the child we made
Give it life just to take it away
It's not our place

Can you feel him inside
Breathing when you breathe
Can you feel him inside

Kicking while you

Sleep softly, my child

Sleep softly, my child
