I feel the emptiness
Now I know what it feels like
To be alive
I'm drowning in your eyes
Suffocating by the lies

Tell me what you felt inside
When you held me close to you
Did you feel the same?
I found the truth

Living yesterday
The walls came crashing down
When no one was around

Tell me what you felt inside
When you held me close to you
Did you feel the same?
I found the truth

Tell me what you felt inside
When you held me close to you
Did you feel the same?
I found the truth

And the truth is
You took a broken heart
And walked away
And never cared

You broke a broken heart
And walked away
And never cared

You broke a broken heart
And walked away
And never cared

And when you're crying there
I'll be there
To remind you
Of everything you threw away

'Cause I found the truth
