When we fell in love, we knew it was forever
You and I were one, that's how it all would be Playing silly games, innocent like children
Heaven in your eyes

I never thought that it would come to this
I can't believe, we could feel

Loneliness, has found its way to our hearts
Like a breeze so easy to ignore
Emptiness, I don't know where we've lost it
I thought you and I belonged, I'm so sorry we were wrong
Loneliness, can we find our way back home

Hold on to my hand, we're in this together
You're trying to be strong
But deep inside, we're searching for a way
To fight the tears

Loneliness, has found its way to our hearts
Like a breeze so easy to ignore
Emptiness, I don't know where we've lost it
I thought you and I belonged, I'm so sorry we were
wrong
Loneliness, can we find our way back home

Loneliness, has found its way to our hearts
Like a breeze so easy to ignore
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Emptiness, I don't know where we've lost it
I thought you and I belonged, I'm so sorry we were
wrong
Loneliness, can we find our way back home
