I will hold my head up high.
To try to see you.
There's so much I wanna say.
Above all that I miss you
And that I'm stronger than before.
Cause I'm learning to get by
But my love for you won't die.

And there isn't anyone who can tell me I'm dreaming.
Cause each night when I think about your face,
is that they all seem so real to me.
But I'm stronger than before,
cause I'm learning to get by.
And my love for you won't die.

This is my thanks,
for all the love you brought into my life
when you were mine.
This is my thanks
for the memories we will cherish
Now that you're gone.

All I really dream of
is to hold you tight and let you know
You will always be here with us in every single way.
But that, no but that

All I really dream of
is to hold you tight and let you know.
You will always be here with us in every single way.
But that, oh but that.
