What do you do when you're down and out
Do you sit and sigh and wonder why
If the answer just comes right to you
It's letting you know just what to do

Oh, your lady's tired of you running around
And if you don't stop she'll put you down
Says she's got some good to give
All of her love and affection here
All you got to do is stop running around

Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired runnin' around
Tell me, are you tired running around

Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired playin' round town
Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired gettin' down on the town

Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home

Lady says she needs your love
It just can't come from up above
She doesn't want to be by herself
Says she wants you and no one else

Knows you bring home the bread
That's half the plan, stay and hold her hand
You being home is surely missed
All she wants is you to hug and kiss

All you got to do is start stay at home

Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired runnin' around
Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired runnin' around town

Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired playin' around town, town

Tell me, are you tired
Tell me, are you tired gettin' down on the town

Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home

Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home
Stay at home, stay at home
