When the future gets real tough
And silence speaks too much.
I'll reach my hands to you.
And if you feel all alone.
And hope is dead and gone.
I'll be right there for you.

I'll be all you need, close your eyes and just believe.

Love, it can break your heart,
But that's where real love starts.
Trust me, I'll show you.
Life, it can beat you down,
But I'll still be around.
There's nothing I can't do.

I'll be all you need, close your eyes and just believe.

Life is shorter than you think,
It can get lost inside a blink.
Don't let it pass you by.
And me, I've loved you from the start,
You're the blood that beats my heart.
Search and you will find me.

I'll be all you need, close your eyes and just believe.
