New beginning

Carlos Santana, Sean Paul and Joss Stone

Talkin' 'bout matters of the heart

Baby, we should never be apart

Going back to the memories

Reminiscing 'bout you and me

Thinking how it used to be

It's plain and clear I treated you bad

But girl you know that I care

Every relation have wear and tear

Just draw near girl and try to hear

And listen what my heart says

Many days and many nights

Many heartbreaks, many fights

Many wrongs but so many rights

So girl don't let this love die

Never meant to 'cause you no pain

Girl, I never meant to treat you lame

Gimme one more chance, rewind, come back again

Don't let this love die

Just cry baby cry

(Don't cry no more)

'Cause every tear that flows falls into the ocean

And rises to the sky

And then the rain will come right before the sun shines

Can you feel me reaching out to you girl?

Can you hear my open thoughts?

Never want to disrespect you girl

Don't let this come break us apart

'Cause I know I would die without you

My girl can you hear my broken heart

It's calling out to the good times

That we had back at the start

Baby

(Don't call me baby)
You know I need you in my life daily
(You know you played me)
I was a player but your love changed me
(Dead wrong)
I'm going crazy, never thought losing you would be so hard
(I'm gone)

It's your turn to cry baby cry
(Don't cry no more)
'Cause every tear that flows falls into the ocean
And rises to the sky
And then the rain will come right before the sun shines

So let go and move on
What we were is now undone
My tears have all dried
It's your turn now to cry

You're losing your love and your trust for me girl
And you knew I would go to the ends of the world
If you wanted, just like we started
Girl 'cause I don't want to fight no more, make it like it was before

I'll tell you the truth and you cried and I cried
Let's get back to the place and that look in your eyes
Can you feel it inside? No clouds in your skies
The sun is gonna shine

Chat to her Santana

It's your turn to cry baby cry
(Don't cry no more)
'Cause every tear that flows falls into the ocean
And rises to the sky
And then the rain will come right before the sun shines

Just cry baby cry
(New beginning)
(Cry for me)
'Cause every tear that flows falls into the ocean
And rises to the sky
And then the rain will come right before the sun shines

Just cry baby cry
(Cry baby)
'Cause every tear that flows falls into the ocean
And rises to the sky
And then the rain will come right before the sun shines
