You got me high,
You got me low
You make me go
Out of control
I can't fight this, I fell overboard
I need a sensory overload.

You never tell me what you mean
And only hear half of what I say
I did not want to pay
But there's something you don't care.

You're so addictive
And I always wonder why?
Always do in a thousand ways.

You're so radioactive
And only you are mine.
To lose the last of my days.
(So addictive x2)

I try to flee,
I try to escape
Stay away from me
Is what I try to make.
But are attempts in vain
I feel too much pain
You're in my soul and my veins.

I can no longer stop
You became my drug
I'm addicted to you
I can't live with or without you.

You're so addictive
And I always wonder why?
Always do in a thousand ways.

You're so radioactive
And only you are mine.
To lose the last of my days.

(So addictive x2)

You are my addiction that keeps me thinking
This feeling will not let me see
You're the reason why I want to believe
Baby, with you I just want to be.

You're so addictive
And I always wonder why?
Always do in a thousand ways.

You're so radioactive
And only you are mine.
To lose the last of my days.

So addictive...
Oh So addictive
So addictive
So radioactive...
Oh So addictive
So addictive...

Oh So addictive
So radioactive...
