"Without you"

Call me courageous,
Cause that's what i'm trying to be.
And break through this silence,
That's breaking it's way through me.

Without you i'm a sinner,
Without you I'm a saint.
Without you I can do it,
Without you I just can't.

What am I gonna do without you by my side?

Speak to me gently,
A word's all I need to hear.
To fetch for the daylight,
To chase away these fears.

Without you I'm a strong man,
Without you I'm no good,
Without you I can't do all the things I thought I could.

What am I gonna do without you by my side?
