don't look ahead, there's stormy weather another roadblock in our way but if we go, we go together our hands are tied here if we stay noh, we set our dreams to carry us and if they don't fly we will run now we push right past to find out noh how to win what they have lost
noh ah, oh ah,
we know now we want more
noh ah, oh ah,
our lives worth fighting for
noh ah, oh ah,
we know now we want more
noh ah, oh ah,
noh so let them say we can't do better they have the rules that we can't break they want to sit and watch you wither their legacy's too hard to take
noh ah, oh ah,
we know now we want more
noh ah, oh ah,
our lives worth fighting for
noh ah, oh ah,
we know now we want more
noh ah, oh ah,
noh in their heads, edge in their beds in their eyes it shows when the beacon breaks, well then you ask and they don't know noh tell me that, i turn my back, well the odds all stand beneath me and they all said, i was misled and now the odds all stand beneath me
noh ah, oh ah,
you're frozen to your core
noh ah, oh ah,
noh ah, oh ah,
noh ah, oh ah,
noh ah, oh ah,
noh ah, oh ah,
