What happened to us all
Have we slept through it
Taking hits off the surface (surface)
Its too hard to swallow it
Their judgements are concentrated
On everything they know.

(Was it all for nothing (no fair) or did we wake you up from your sleeping?)

[Chorus]

I've overheard it once
This has gone on before
It's still one in the same
(When you're accounted for)
We seem so far away from
These things we used to know
We seem so far away from everything we are.

(Why are you sleeping?)

Everyone that moves around me
They're saying nuthing
That makes the fire burn
Savor something that no one wanted to hear
They know that everything is wrong

(Was it all for nothing or did we wake you up from your sleeping?)

[Chorus]

I've overheard it once
This has gone on before
It's still one in the same
(When you're accounted for)
We seem so far away from
These things we used to know
We seem so far away from everything we are.

All we are is golden (golden)
This won't mean a thing

All we know is golden (golden)
This won't mean a thing
