have you heard many a story told by old and young with joy about the faithful deed of daring that was done by the laughlin boy

listen to me children, well i wouldn't tell a lie
listen to me children, well i wouldn't tell a lie that laughlin boy was a boy of honor and he loved virginia well but he would not fire a rifle so he sat in a cold jail cell

he was pierced and he was beaten forty stripes he gladly bore but he would not serve the devil in that awful civil war

listen to me children, well i wouldn't tell a lie twelve grey soldiers stood before him and they aimed their rifles true he prayed lord, oh please forgive them for they know not what they do

those young soldiers would not fire they defied the general's plan so the army changed his sentence who could murder such a man?

listen to me children, well i wouldn't tell a lie they hauled him far away to richmond far away from his kids and wife there, pneumonia wracked his body that good man soon lost his life

that good man soon lost his life

now his wife is sadly weeping seven children wonder why lord it seems that truth and honor sure can come at an awful price

oh, have you heard many a story told by old and young with joy
