Sinking,
I've fallen in too deep and I regret it;
I don't know,
Cause all we have left to say;
How do we pick ourselves up now,
If the clouds bring the rain,
Before we evaporate;

I will never be able to say,
I love you,
I love you;

I love you;

Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;
Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;

Thinking,
Without all of my regrets and contradictions;
Where did I go,
I thought this was the right way;
Do I live to grow up now,
Or just fade away,
Under this tree of shame;

Or will I be able to say,
I love you,
I love you;

Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;
Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;
Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;

And all you do,
And all you say,
Washes away,
Away;

With the rain;

All you thought,
Would never change,
Washes away,
It'll never be the same;

Cause all I see,
And all I feel,
Takes me away,
Takes me away,
Hey;

And all you do,
And all you say,
Washes away,
Away;
With the rain;

And all you thought, (How could I have know)
Would never change, (How could I of changed)
Washes away,
It'll never be the same; (I'll never be the same)

Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;
Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;
Stay bright little fireflies,
Make light before my eyes;

Wish I could love you,
In that don't regret the rain;
Now that I'm sinking,
I'll just say goodbye;
