Look at you standing there, there with your hands out.
Standing next to the road that goes up running your mouth about how you're gonna wait for the one that comes down

Who do you think you are, somebody's baby?
You want what everyone has
But you want your name on it
You think it happens like that That'd be nice, won't it?

I, gotta be careful to you
I, I wanna get there too

You want to go, but you want a free ride.
You want it in by standing on the outside.
I'm not the one to call when it comes under.
You want the world, but don't wanna pay out.
Don't wanna hurt, and don't wanna say out loud
That I'm right, there's no end in sight
waiting on a free ride

You say your turn is coming, that's what you told me
So you stand in one place
before the end of the tunnel to come light up your face and reward you for what you haven't done

And I know, it's out of my hands
But I had to pay with blood, sweat, and tears
While you, you dare to say that your lucky day is past due

You want to go, but you want a free ride.
You want it in by standing on the outside.
I'm not the one to call when it comes under.
You want the world, but don't wanna pay out.
Don't wanna hurt, and don't wanna say out loud
That I'm right, there's no end in sight
waiting on a free ride

I see you when the lights rise up
you want some too
How could anyone blame you?
I see you when the lights rise up
you want some too
How could anyone blame you?

You want to go, but you want a free ride.
You want to go, but you want a free ride.

You want to go, but you want a free ride
You want it in by standing on the outside.
I'm not the one to call when it comes under.
You want the world, but don't wanna pay out.
Don't wanna hurt, and don't wanna say out loud
That I'm right, there's no end in sight
waiting on a free ride

Just waiting, waiting on a free ride.
Since you've been gone.
