Little girl, little town, little left to say Hard enough to get out, much less get away Speak your mind if you dare to be heard I warn you I'm very daring with words
I was wild, entertained, on a hunt for myself Got your claws in my mane
As if I need help
Made my mask, made my dress
Did your best to make me
You came first, now at last Get what I heard you say You want me to believe that if you want to stick around you better settle down, stay in one place, don't you mess around, & Wear a little blush on your face
Be a good girl, good girls are what we need
Wear it if you can, take it like a man Remember your place, get your diamond ring, don't say a thing
A lady has grace, and good girls, good girls are what we need
Well get your good girls and get the hell away from me

Stake your claim, your possession, all over me Make your aim my obsession, to what you want I need Bind my feet, cut my hair Tell me who you think I should be Gotten used to thin air Someday you're gonna see me you want me to believe that if you want to stick around

You better settle down, stay in one place, Don't you mess around & were a little blush on your
face
Be a good girl, good girls are what we need
Wear it if you can, take it like a man
Remember your place, get your diamond ring, don't say a thing
A lady has grace, and good girls, good girls are what
we need

Well get your good girls and get the hell away from me

Whisper to me, just wait and you will see Things are changing so quickly
I give up, I give out, and I'm down on my knees You smile as you say finally, and I know what you mean You are the same thing, just give it changing

You're the good girl, what does that mean?
Dare you be strong,dare you Dare you live long,dare you Dare you to be proud,dare you Dare you live loud,dare you
