He was a good man he had a good heart with a good soul

A good thing we had so I thought but I was wrong

He let me down by never letting on

He was as good as gone.

He had a good game he held a good hand played the cards that

He should play so you understand why I lost

He had that thing I never put my finger on

I put my whole hand and good God, yeah.

La da da da da da da

CHORUS

You talk about being lonely and tell me that your Sunsets weren't so great when you were waiting on me

Oh but you don't know me

I realize some other eyes were watching your sunrise

You blame it on me and do it innocently don't leave your hat on my door you don't live here no more

The gig is up, game is through? And you lose.

So Relax. And settle in

To my story about one foolish King and his sin

He had a Queen with a castle worth coming in

Everyone said so but he's no good at listening

It was one day and queenie's in a land far away

And the good ol' King Restless is aching to play

With the next best thing and the girl after that

But it doesn't matter now, Cause I'm not coming back

Not coming back.

CHORUS

You talk about being lonely and tell me that your

Sunsets weren't so great when you were waiting on me

Oh but you don't know me

I realize some other eyes were watching your sunrise

You blame it on me and do it innocently don't leave

your hat on my door you don't live here no more

The gig is up, game is through? And you lose.

You said I could stand next to you if I wanted to want the best for you
But I don't so you make your next mistake on your own
You can tell me to forgive you but don't ask twice don't want to see the part of me that's made of fire and ice, talk of love talk of pain talk of fear all I hear is goodbye?.

CHORUS

You talk about being lonely and tell me that your
Sunsets weren't so great when you were waiting on me
Oh but you don't know me
I realize some other eyes were watching your sunrise
You blame it on me and do it innocently don't leave
your hat on my door you don't live here no more
The gig is up, game is through? And you lose
