There I was ten years old
Waiting in my room for him to come home
And I just knew he'd be so mad
Though I begged my mother not to
She told my dad
There was no denying I let him down
But instead of being angry
He put his arms around me and said

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way
Whatever road you may be on
Know you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby

There I was twenty one
Oh I was so ashamed of what I'd done
On a country road parked one night
What started out so innocent crossed the line
There was no denying I let God down
But instead of being angry He let his love surround me and I heard

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way
Whatever road you may be on
Know you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby

There he is, my little man
I'm sure he'll get in trouble every now and then
And I pray to God that when he does I'll be just as understanding and my father was
'Cause the last thing that I want to do is let him down
So instead of being angry
I'm gonna throw my arms around him and I'll say

In the sunlight or the rain
Brightest nights or darkest days
I'll always feel the same way
Whatever road you may be on
Know you're never too far gone
My love is there wherever you may be
Just remember that you'll always be my baby
Be my baby
