Take me somewhere perfectly still
Under the trees in the dark
At the top of the hill

Feel the wind blow in the low fading light
Make us a bed in the pines
And IÂ'll sleep well tonight

Beneath a million white stars
Beneath a million white stars
WeÂ've come so far

Blow the fire, breathe it to life
Watching it dance in the silent black world
Of the night

Beneath a million white stars
Beneath a million white stars
WeÂ've come so far

(repeat)

Above the city lights
There are no walls between us
And in the darkest night
The stars will reveal us
IÂ'll sing you my deepest thoughts
Ringing through my guitar
Tell me your secrets
IÂ'll keep them right where they are

Beneath a million white stars
Beneath a million white stars
Beneath a million white stars
WeÂ've come so far
