That's it, I'm all better now
Spit up the last of what made me hurt
And I feel light as a feather now
At last I finally know my worth

I thought I'd never learn to be alone
Open all my windows wide
Turn the ringer off the phone
Light my orange candles at night

And I'm wishing on a new moon
Something better is coming
It's coming soon...
I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'

I close my eyes up on the high, high dive
Stretch my arms up to the sky
Endless water lies deep below
But somewhere in the air I'll learn to fly

I'm wishing on a new moon
Something better is coming
It's coming soon
I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'
I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'

It's so easy to complain
But it'll make you insane
That same routine
The impulse to be mean
But the grass is oh so green
After winter rain

I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'
I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'
I feel it comin', I feel it comin', I feel it comin'
