I didn't wanna freak you out this morning
When I heard your voice so far away
So I just listened to you yawning
I didn't tell you what I wanted to say

See you were in my dream this morning
It seems I love you still
Oh, you, you just appear, no warning
It seems you always will

Did I cross your mind while you were sleeping
Did I crawl into your silent mind
Did I appear in your deepest story
And did your mouth touch mine

Cuz you were in my dream this morning
It seems I love you still
Oh you, you just appear, no warning
It seems you always will

I close my eyes and there you are
I can't get far from you

Because you were in my dream this morning
It seems I love you still
Yea you, you just appear, no warning
It seems you always will

Oh you were in my dream this morning
And I love you still
