Whatever happened, to the girl who used to live next door?

She used to be like everybody
She doesn't live here anymore

She had a lot of surgery, to change the way she looks
She found a new identity
To help some guy get hooked

She's a rock and roll porn star
There she goes in a brand new car
The silicone may leave a scar
U know, u know, u know

One day to operate, six months to heal
New clothes and lingerie
Does it make u feel?
She works at all the clubs, with nothing to hide
She's up there on the stage
How do u feel inside?

She's a rock and roll porn star
There she goes in a brand new car
The silicone may leave a scar
U know, u know, u know
She's a rock and roll porn star
There she goes, but she won't get far
She'll end up in a dead beat bar
U know, u know, u know, u know

She lives in California, she's on the internet
She's got a self esteem,
It hasn't let her down, not yet
Every guy, every guy
Every guy wants U
