I need some soft warm beautiful sounds
To wrap around myself
And lull me while I lie here
Quietly till I die here

Wandering around the peaks
And vistas in my mind
Picking up the pieces
Of the thoughts I left behind here
Perfect joy I find here

I need some soul magic Soul magic

It's enough to think the beautiful ideas
That help to keep me sane
River of ideas I dive into
Your peaceful waters once again
To wash away the pain

And when the light shines so beautifully
Bright
I'll kiss the morning but
I won't forget the night here
Crystal clear my sight here
