It's you against the world. I don't think so

They wouldn't stand a chance now girl
Cause even when your backs on the ropes
I can tell, you'll get them by the final bell

If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself as well

You're high above the world, I don't think so
If you're hanging around me girl
And even when you try to call
I know you stall; I clime another stroey tall

If only you were at your best
Instead of fighting yourself as well

don't let your mind change you this time don't let the tide turn you tonight
