I'll never know
Why did you leave me
Those tears that show
Are they really grieving me
I know I lied
The tears are in my eyes
Now you'll never know

That it's hurting inside, hurting inside
You'll never know, you'll never know

Have I done so wrong
That you won't take me back now
I'm tryin' to be strong
I hold my tears back now
But if you don't care
About the tears I'll shed
Then let me know

Because it's hurting inside, hurting inside
You'll never know, you'll never know

----- lead guitar -----

You'll never know, you'll never know

Won't you come on home
And please forgive me
I promise I won't roam
If you say you still love me
I'll hold you dear
I'll hold you near
Close to my heart
And it won't hurt me inside, hurt me inside
Our love will go on, our love will go on
