I've done it again!
Trust me. If you want something ruined give it to me.
Show me a dream and I'll show you a nightmare.
I'm not a little girl anymore I keep forgetting that.
Whatever I do now is bound to be a mistake.
Maybe I expect too much.
Come back. Can't we sit and talk this thing over?

Why should I cry? I can do better.
Not good enough for me.
Nothing like it's gonna be.

It's not the end of the world to chase rainbows.
I'll be fine when I find mine.
It's not the end of the world nothing like it.
Someone's there and I'll find where.
It's not the end of the world to be free.
It's not the end of the world wait and see.
