When firebirds cry they say ten thousand tears
Fall from the heavens like small diamond spears
There they do shine on the crowns of the waves
And all the boats, their sails burst into flame

Namida - forbidden lovers' tears
Namida - eternity lives here

You and I will rise
Firebirds on high

Home is for you the Lost Land of Curved Fire
And I'm the one from the Sea of Desires
O fiery flight, O celestial we glide
Haloed in light with our wings intertwined

Namida - forbidden lovers' tears
Namida - eternity lives here

See, we'll never die
Firebirds on high

Namida...
Namida...

Firebirds on high
