Waters deep
Waters blue
The gently flow
From me to you
Your colored voice
It's vibrant toned
The hidden force
Of the big crystal blue
And by the light
Of the silvery moon
The wild horses
Come running home
Miles apart
But still entwined
I like to think
That you sit here too
And let your thoughts
And let your soul
Be gently lulled
By what's in front of you
Too many ashore
And the distant land
The seas unite
Bringing me to you
