Deep within your mind you have been blind
Look around and find
There's something in the air

Sometimes I can read it in your eyes
Keep the dream alive
There's something in the air

Don't know why the truth becomes a lie
Makes me wanna cry
There's something in the air

And I can feel it... Oh yeah
And I can feel it... Everywhere

There is something in the air
Our tears will dry tomorrow
No more pain or sorrow
There's something in the air

All the darkness turns to sunlight
(The) Dawning hits the long night
There's something in the air
We can heal the wounds of time together
It'll be forever
There's something in the air
I can feel the love that I desire
Come on take me higher
There's something in the air
