Little brothers got a habit
That he thinks hes getting under control And hes selling all our love and best wishes as the hunger grows
Living by the scripture on the subway wall
He wants to be a rebel but he cant find a cause.

He needs something to believe in
He needs something to believe in
All he ever wanted was to get away

Little sisters getting serious with a fella nearly twice her age
And shes aiming to move in with him
As soon as they can find a place
But theres no getting through to her, theres no other way,
You cant learn from mistakes that somebody else made.

She needs something to believe in
She needs something to believe in
All she ever wanted was to get away

Caught in the void of no hope and no choice
Its a nobody wins situation
What can they do? - its a catch-22
Its a breakdown in communication

Little wonder theyre confused, no wonder we misunderstand
Little wonder theres a wind of change blowing through the land,
Nobodys guilty...its a sign of the times
But we wont see the future till we open our eyes

We need something to believe in
We need something to believe in Something to believe in
We need something to believe in
Something to believe in
We need something to believe in

All he ever wanted was to get away
