Songwriters: Darling, Sarah; Deere, Jason

You're the hardest workin' man in this town
Sunup to sundown
You're always formulatin' some sort of plan
'Cause you need somethin' to do with your hands

I've seen 'em break the black dirt in the yard
I've heard them workin' 'neath the hood of your car
They fix the leaky pipe under the sink
Easy to see they can do anything

Boy, you better not be too tired
When you get home tonight
Please understand
I've got this burnin' down deep in my soul
That's got me longin' to hold onto my man
And if you need somethin' to do with your hands
Uh-uh oh, uh-uh oh
If you need somethin' to do with your hands
Uh-uh oh, uh-uh oh

Follow the candles when you walk through the door
Just drop your coat and keys on the floor
'Cause I've been cookin' up somethin' so fine
And I just might be wearin' somethin' you like

Boy, you better not be too tired
When you get home tonight
Please understand
I've got this burnin' down deep in my soul
That's got me longin' to hold onto my man
And if you need somethin' to do with your hands
Uh-uh oh, uh-uh oh
If you need somethin' to do with your hands
Uh-uh oh

When you kiss me
Kiss me slowly

And if you need somethin' to do with your hands,

Uh-uh oh, uh-uh oh
If you need somethin' to do with your hands
Uh-uh oh, uh-uh oh
If you need somethin' to do with your hands
Yeah, yeah
If you need somethin' to do with your hands
