Title : Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon
got some work to do but i can't keep my mind off You i look at where i am i look at how i stand and i would be nowhere without You

I fear i'm falling fast, cut by broken glass and i shattered myself inside my sorrows and i fly back to yesterday and all the time You've been holding me it's been a long, long way reaching for that day when I will be with You forever, forever

Sunday afternoon
i've got some work to do
