Loving you is easy, loving you is wondrous and pure
I shout it from the roof tops
How long must I wait till I see your smile

Might have been the moonlight
Caught up in the sparkle in your eyes
So wicked and I know I should go slow
But it's not in me to wait

Cause I'm alive I'm on fire
Shot like a star burst into the sky

Oh the fury of desire
You burn so bright electrify
You light me up you take me higher

I've been down a long road
I've become a stranger to myself
Digging in my heels and hoping time
Might be kinder if I waited out

But nothing came from wanting
I've become so small and insecure
Didn't know the cost of all I lost
Until I finally fresh and new (Again with you)

I'm on fire
Shut like a star burst into the sky

Oh the fury of desire
You burn so bright electrify
You light me up you take me higher

(Whoooooooooooo)

Loving you is easy
Loving you is wondrous and pure
I shout it from the roof tops
How long must I wait till I see your smile
