And your love and all its finery
Tear at the darkness all around me
Until I can breathe again
Until I believe again

Chorus:

'Cause I'm a trainwreck
Waiting to happen
Waiting for someone to come
Pick me up off the tracks
The wildfire born of frustration
Born of the one love that gets me so high
I've no fear at all

And your eyes like midnight fireflies
Light up the trenches where my heart lies
Until I can see again
Find my way back again

Chorus

To fall so deep into you
Lose myself completely
In your sweet embrace
All my pains erased

And your mouth is all that I wish
Mercy of your lips
Just one kiss
Until I can breathe again
Until I can sing again

Chorus

To fall so deep into you
Lose myself completely
In your sweet embrace
All my pains erased
