If you've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could go on forever- Yeah
You've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could hold it all together
Your mind real wild

Way south of any bordered country
In a land where the darkness is slow turning
In the twilight of a postcard island lie
Little ashtrays of industrial dreams
And you- Yeah you- Stranded on the moon
Just to keep it all in the back of your head
While you zoom- Consume- Little laughter from the gloom
Just to keep it all in the back of your head now

If you've been waiting- you've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could go on forever- Yeah
And you've been waiting- you've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could hold it all together
The world unwinds and your mind keeps a spinning out

In the chaos of a river thrashing
All that water and still got to stand in line
Everything you ever wanted truly
In a word carved in stone just beyond your touch
Touch- Thank you very much
Just to keep it all in the back of my head
While you zoom consume- Little bandits on the moon
Just to keep it all in the back of your head
Well the world's unkind I am here to remind you

If you've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could go on forever- Yeah
If you've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could hold it all together
The world unwinds and your mind keeps a-spinning out

A fine line's been drawn here
Your tidy world has exploded into pieces
A songline's been sung here- It's part of you
It's in blood and tattooed to your heart

If you've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could go on forever- Yeah
You've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could hold it all together-
Yeah
You've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could go on forever- now
If you've been waiting- You've been waiting too long
Just when you thought you could Just when you thought you could go on
Hah- Oh
You've been waiting too long
Spinning out a line
Your mind keeps spinning out a line
You've been waiting too long
Too
