Sarai, 2001 they've been asking for ya,
You know hit them from all angles

(Come on) It's been so long I've waited
And I can't believe that I finally made it
It was all a dream till I dedicated
My life to the game so you can feel me baby

It's been a long time coming
Locked up in the lab with inferred pen and a pad
Lot of kicks in the game
Trying to sing can't switch
Say stop trying to make me laugh
They look at me like hahaha like it aint hard
Spitball 16 falls
Don't make me have to pull your car
Rip it apart shot cause you gonna seem far
You gotta stalk to amaze
Often the pen don't stop for days
For weeks for years I keep it moving
Driven by fears never losing
Later when the game I'm in
Making there head spin in the streets needing me
Like emphysema Patients need oxygen
Hot wits have lots again rocking all spots I'm in North, south, east, west over seas and back again
DJ's being the rocks that spin
Some of ya'll need some practicing
Got everyone in the world saying
That Sarai got the track again

It's been so long I've waited
And I can't believe that I finally made it
It was all a dream till I dedicated
My life to the game so you can feel me baby

This is how it gonna be
I've been working hard for this
Putting in all I got I'm going to be the star for this
Yo, pardon miss excuse me
But you got to make way

I ain't knew to this stay true to this
We've been doing this since back in the day
I've been putting in work
Writing so much that my whole head starts to hurt
I'm up so late I fall asleep hands on my face
You can tell me what it's worth
It's Official!

I stepped on you fell off
And they don't miss you
Bumped like missiles
While you rip easy like wet tissues
Issues got to deal with Phenomenon stops hop a seal get
Hot roles hot bits
Know you got to fell it
I keeps it grew it
Everything I do
I don't have to pull in front of you
No they can't believe it is
It's half respect of what you do

It's Official!

It's been so long I've waited
And I can't believe that I finally made it
It was all a dream till I dedicated
My life to the game so you can feel me baby

Do you know how much time I spent at home?
Writing rhymes thinking for the microphone
I can't be like Kim I can have dreams
Move the crowds and get everybody rocking
One shot with the inferred dot
Hit them right in the pocket
He does try to block it
But there is just no way to stop it
Goes so fast just no fact over head
Pick your topic they fight at night
Hop on a flight headed to a top just like rockets
I'm medicated, finally made it
Ya'll don't know how long I've waited
Strong very long only da best
Ya'll can just get it on

It's been so long I've waited
And I can't believe that I finally made it
It was all a dream till I dedicated
My life to the game so you can feel me baby

Get up bounce

Get up bounce
Get up bounce

It's been so long I've waited
(Get up bounce)
Dedicated
(Get up bounce)
Get up and bounce
