beyond the firey lakes
of time, there is a void...
I iwll be what I will be...
from above, a shadow
comes down on me,
through the majestic spheres, natures eternal circle of sublime beauty,
the pain, the torture,
the night, the dark,
I am but a void,
a tiny disgusting seed, sealed in this black earth...

I laugh at the illusion of god, the grandeur, and the fools that have followed,

be at peace, my friends,
when you close your eyes
it is forever...

dawn arose when I met this wolrd, from the warmth of oblivion, to the cold of reality's absurdity.
as I watch the blood
spill from my wrists,
I anticipate the warmth
I shall feel again...
