He's the only one I love and she 's the only one I like
Everytime we come down gettin' in a fight
I can never choose the two that I might Want for forever and to hold close right?
Shit like this always got to end so hard
All the tears and the pain are written on my cards
Can you hear what I'm sayin do you really understand
Hard to say goodbye to your future wife or man
I'm reppin' sea city and it's hard to find the one
Even if you do it's needin' a damn solution
When you got one on your left and on the right
Inside your heart you have to leave in the night
Knowin' to move on pain in my chest
But, I know it's better it's for the rest
Gotta put the love away gotta break a heart
I'm only afraid of the action of tearin' it apart

I really have to say goodbye
Even though it hurts me deep inside
I don't wanna have to you let you go
Man it's so hard to say goodbye
Bye (16)
Man it's so hard to say goodbye

When I think of all the times with him and her
The memories fade out but, it's all a blur
I'm not ready for serious but, I ain't ready to leave
I don't wanna start cryin' I don't wanna grieve
I say what's on my mind, and my mind is what it is
I hate the fact that I'm in the biz
2 that I love and the two that cause chills
You're love is a drug and I need another pill
Who cares bout the blah blah people say
You need to learn how to love straight or gay
I'm Bi the purple and blue baby Rey
Cause I'm open to you and I feel ok
Turn my sky blue when you see it's gray
The beach is soft so that's where I'll be It's so hard to say goodbye but, you know I gotta say goodbye

I really have to say goodbye
Even though it hurts me deep inside
I don't wanna have to you let you go
Man it's so hard to say goodbye
Bye (16)
Man it's so hard to say goodbye

Beat

I really have to say goodbye
Even though it hurts me deep inside
I don't wanna have to you let you go
Man it's so hard to say goodbye
Bye (16)
Man it's so hard to say goodbye
