Now that you're gone,

[Chorus]

I dont really need to feel the pain of loving you,
Now that you're gone,
I dont really need to sit around and wait for you,
Now that our love is gone,
I dont really need to feel the pain of loving you.
Now that you're gone,
I dont really need to sit around and wait for you.

Never knew that love would come my way,
Untill the day you walked into my life,
Now you see that it ain't what isn't suppose to be,
You've change, You're strange,
Never smile when you call my name,
Oh, now you say you got the game on me,
That's just the way of saying you're a waste of time,
You lied i cried, You mean that you broke my heart,
Pack your bags get out of my life,
Now that you're gone...

[Chorus]

Dont say that you'll be there to comfort me,
Cos when it comes to love its mysery,
Made a fool for you,
Just like our mtv,
You smile i cried never knew what I felt inside,
Oh now you say that you got the game on me,
That's just the way of saying you're a waste of time,
You lied, i cried, you mean that you broke my heart,
Pack your bags get out of my life,

[Chorus]

Saving all my love for some who's loving me.

[Chorus]
