You know that I
I think if the times
When you and I
We're doing just fine
But now I smile
Cause things were not right
I've seen the light

Say goodbye
To your lies
Wasted my time
Of my life

(Chorus)
You told me
You told me
You'd called me
And I, I waited so long
So I, I hold to your words
When I, I try to hold on

To think that you
Played me for a fool
Now tell me why
You acted so cruel
So many lies
And now there's no room
Cried every night
I cried over you

Say goodbye
To your lies
Wasted my time
Of my life

(Chorus)
