Take it all
I'm fine aline
I'm getting along without you, I'm independent
Take it all
I'm fine by myself
If love is a movie, there's only a blank screen

I don't know how I let myself fall for you
I ask myself this and I will never know
How I believed
And how I didn't understand
That you lied to me in the name of love
You fed me a thousand stories and promises
And you let me live between dreams and fantasies
But I have the strength to forget you
Because I'm through playing the game of love

Take it all
I'm fine aline
I'm getting along without you, I'm independent
Take it all
I'm fine by myself
If love is a movie, there's only a blank screen

I have within me a love without end
But not even one drop of it remains for you
I know that there is no more life in this life
I'm finished, there is no way back
My innocence has disappeared and is lost forever

I will never again let anyone play with my emotions
I'm not in a hurry and I am not falling apart
Be on your way and never come back
