This is the original version of Seether's 'Fade Away'.
The lyrics are somewhat different.

-----

I wanna be there when you fall
I wanna answer when you call
I wanna give you all you need
I wanna give you all you breathe.

Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh.

I wanna catch you when you fall
I wanna be there when you call
I want to give you what you need
I can give you all you need.

Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh.

I wanna be there when you call
I wanna catch you when you fall
I can give you all you need
I can give you all you need.

Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh
Today's the day we'll fade away, oh.
