Look into my eyes and see my pain
Now that I lost what I thought I'd gained
Sourness and fear is all I taste
Now I understand what I had to waste
My love.

Look into the fires you left behind
Smoking ashes sear my mind
Unconcerned and in denial
Clip my wings, put me on trial
My love.

Now there's only me
God has made me weak
Now there's only me
Gone is apathy.

Look into my eyes and see my pain
Now that I lost what I thought I'd gained
Sourness and fear is all I taste
Now I understand what I had to waste
My love.

Now there's only me
God has made me weak
Now there's only me
Gone is apathy.

History's in the mind of the teller
The truth is in the tale...

History's in the mind of the teller
The truth is in the tale
In the tale
The truth is in the tale
The truth is in the tale.
