I tried to look away but I can't resist I can't believe that you exist
where do you come from we shared the day but you're not tangled in it's pain

What I behold is awesome
awesome x 4
awesome x 4

read a book, a book of love - within the story, you picture yourself I can tell if I seem silent I'm just thanking someone far away, for you

what I behold is awesome...
awesome x 4
awesome x 4

They say the world is always turning in suspended animation
I keep yearning for you x 3

Picture what you and I can do yearning for you x 3

What I behold is awesome
awesome x 4
awesome x 4

Oh they say the world is always turning in suspended animation I keep
yearning for you x 3

You're a gem I'd never give away if I lost everything I would hold you - in my hands and open them every time I had the chance
dazzled by what I held
